NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

Roy Olds vs.
Hattie Olds
In Chancery court at Crossville, No. 1249.

It appears from the bill filed in this cause that Hattie Olds is a non-resident of the state, so that ordinary process cannot be served on her. She is therefore hereby required to appear at the office of the Clerk and Master at the court house in Crossville, Tennessee, on or before the first Monday in May, 1915, and answer the bill filed against her in this cause or same will be taken for confessed and set for hearing ex parte as to her.

It is ordered that this notice be published in the Crossville Chronicle for four consecutive weeks.

This March 17, 1915.
C. G. Black,
Clerk and Master.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an Order of Sale issued to me by the clerk of the Circuit court of Cumberland county, Tennessee, in the case of Burt A. Packer vs T. S. Parnam, I will, at the court house door, in Crossville, Tennessee, at one o'clock, p. m., on Saturday, April 24, 1915, sell to the highest and best bidder for cash 200 acres of land in the old fourth civil district of said county and bounded on the north by land of Henry Miller, now Elijah Norris; on the south by land of W. B. Hall; on the east by land of W. H. McCord and Bessie Hinch, and on the west by land of W. H. McCord, levied on as the property of T. S. Parnam and to be sold to satisfy a balance of a judgment recovered by Packer against him in said circuit court, the balance being $116.81 and costs of sale.

TAXATION.

Pleasant Hill, Tenn., March 29, 1915.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Please give space for a word regarding taxation.

A, B and C each have a house and a very small amount of land. A pays $6.15 tax; B pays $4.10 tax; C pays $2.05 tax. The property is so near the same value that should it be sold the difference would be small, with the favor leaning toward B and C.

Mr. Y has a house and a few acres of land; Mr. X has a house and a large tract of land. Mr. Y pays $8 tax and Mr. X pays $3 tax. Why such a system of taxation?

A Citizen.

[Some things connected with tax values in this county seem past understanding. This is one of them, so far as we are concerned. Better appeal to the Tax Assessor, he may be able to give the desired light.—Ed. Chronicle.]

KITCHEN CORNER.

By "Aunt Kitty."

Quick and easy—When there is no time for moulding board and roller, line two pie tins with well shortened batter, spread as thin as possible, and bake quickly. Slip from the tins—using them for upper and under crusts—fill with any kind of fresh or canned fruit, well sweetened—and there is your pie!

A wholesome spread for school or picnic lunches:—Roast a pound of raw peanuts in the corn popper or oven, and when well browned and cooled grind them with the meat-chopper or the coffee mill until as fine as corn meal. Add salt to taste and enough melted butter to spread nicely on slices of mother's good bread.

It is going outside of the kitchen to say it, but there's many a farmer who puts in big crops and cares for them faithfully, while he leaves his garden to Providence and his wife—with a broken hoe and a toothless rake! Yes, I know you are "all-fired" busy—and so is your wife—but a good garden is a big blessing and pays for itself a hundred times over.

THEY KNOW IT'S SAFE.

Parents who know from experience insist upon Foley's Honey and Tar Compound when buying a medicine for coughs, colds, croup and lagrippe. C. T. Lunceford, Washington, Ga., writes: "I have used it for six years and it never has failed. I think it is the best remedy made for coughs and colds." Sold by Reed & Burnett.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

To Wm. M. Jones:
It appearing that Wm. M. Jones is a made defendant to the petition of James W. Cooper, et al, filed in the cause of James W. Cooper, et al, vs Marcus Cooper, et al, and that he is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, he is therefore hereby required to appear at the office of the Clerk and Master, in the court house, at Crossville, and answer the said petition filed in said cause, on or before the first Monday in May, 1915, or the same will be taken for confessed and proceeded with ex parte as to him.

It is ordered that this publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Crossville Chronicle.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an Order of Sale issued to me by the clerk of the Circuit court of Cumberland county, Tennessee, in the case of Manufacturers National Bank, Harriman, Tennessee, vs J. S. Cline, I will, at the court house door, in Crossville, Tennessee, at one o'clock p. m., on Saturday, April 24, 1915, sell to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand the following tracts of land:

First Tract: Lying in the 4th civil district of Cumberland county, Tennessee, beginning on a white oak and white oak pointers, in Noah Hatfield's fence, on the east side of Daddys creek; thence by metes and bounds, which are fully set out in the Order of Sale, in my hands, containing 90 acres.

Second Tract: Beginning at a stone 176 poles east of Daddy creek, a corner of DeRossett's land, a few steps north of the road leading from Crab Orchard to Robert Barnes place; thence bounded by metes and bounds which are fully set out in the Order of Sale in my hands, containing 148 acres, more or less.

Third Tract: Lying in the 4th civil district of Cumberland county, Tennessee, beginning on a maple, on the east side of Daddys creek; thence bounded by metes and bounds, which are fully set out in the Order of Sale which is in my hands, containing 100 acres, more or less.

Said land is levied on as the property of J. S. Cline to satisfy a judgement that said bank recovered against him in said court and the costs.

Crossville, Tennessee, March 29, 1915.
